

Enoch Turner

SCHOOLHOUSE

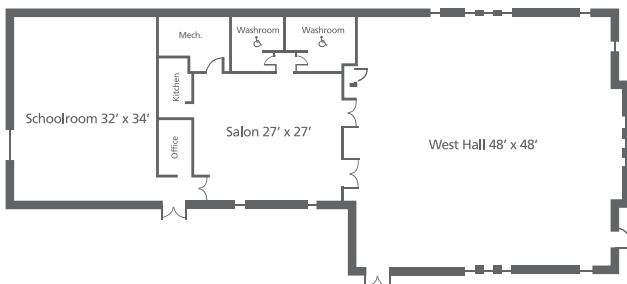

The Schoolhouse

Located in Toronto's historical Corktown neighbourhood, the Enoch Turner Schoolhouse offers a unique and charming setting for any special event. When you book the schoolhouse you have exclusive use of all three distinct spaces that make up the schoolhouse: the Salon, the Schoolroom and the West Hall. Built in the 1800's, the schoolhouse is the oldest school still standing in Toronto and its Victorian features offer a stunning backdrop for any gathering.

The Enoch Turner Schoolhouse is equipped with A/C, wireless internet, modern kitchen and washrooms, a baby grand piano, and is accessible with lots of public parking nearby.
