Meridian Hall

Located in the heart of downtown Toronto, the historic Meridian Hall is an integral part of the city's cultural sector, making it an exciting spot to host your private events. With stunning, versatile interiors, this venue is a unique setting for a wide variety of events, including professional conferences, product launches, car shows, trade shows, award shows, town halls, convocations, weddings, company holiday parties, fundraising galas, and so much more.

In addition to the Main Theatre and Stage, the Lobbies, Lounges, Mezzanine, and West Plaza all offer a variety of options to host your event.

With unique and customizable spaces, Meridian Hall offers limitless possibilities.

Initially known as the O'Keefe Centre, Meridian Hall first opened its doors to the public on October 1st, 1960. Since then, countless renowned musicians and bands, dance companies, comedy acts, family programs, films with live orchestra, international performers, award shows, and special events have been hosted within its halls.

When you decide to host an event at the Meridian Hall, you are sharing a space with the world's most noteworthy performers.

Digital Signage

Digital signage offers a great way to brand the space for your event and personalize areas to your liking, and Meridian Hall offers 74 high-definition flat panel monitors for client use, free of charge. These monitors are programmed and supervised by in-house personnel and can display still images and video content. A separate digital signage package with technical specifications will be provided upon booking.

Anything displayed in real-time (like a PowerPoint presentation), will need to be set-up and operated by unionized IATSE personnel. Charges will apply.
