THE PARLOUR STORY

TRAVEL BACK IN TIME

The inspiration for Parlour, an early era speakeasy establishment, came naturally. It was as if the walls of this 19th century building guided us on our journey. Built in 1895, with all its character and charm, Parlour is located in one of the last remaining row of town homes in the downtown core. And one of the few that survived the great fire of 1904, which destroyed much of early Toronto's architecture.

The term "Parlour Room" derives from the 18th century word describing the best room in one's home, and was often a marker of social status.

*Imagine all the secrets whispered,
all the tales spun and all the stories retold within Parlour's walls over the last hundred years.*

Embracing style, music and art, entering Parlour will teleport you back to a time when jazz musicians were rock stars, gangsters were celebrities, and where speakeasys were the place to see and be seen.
