Welcome to
STEAM WHISTLE

Nestled in the heart of downtown Toronto at the base of the iconic CN Tower, Steam Whistle offers couples a truly unforgettable setting to celebrate their love. Housed within the historic John Street Roundhouse, this one-of-a-kind venue blends timeless industrial charm with a vibrant city backdrop - creating a wedding experience that feels both elevated and uniquely Toronto.

Original brick-and-beam architecture, soaring ceilings, expansive windows, and cobblestone surroundings set the stage for a romantic and visually stunning celebration. Whether you're envisioning an intimate gathering or a lively reception, every moment is enhanced by the character and history woven into the space.

With over 20 years of experience hosting exceptional events, our dedicated team works alongside Toronto's top vendors and partners to bring your vision to life seamlessly. From your first toast to your final dance, your wedding at Steam Whistle is designed to feel effortless, memorable, and entirely your own.
