Your Wedding, Directed.

The DNA Project | Live entertainment, directed.

Most entertainment companies send musicians. We send a Music Director, someone who plans your whole day with you and directs every transition, from the processional to the last song.

1. Ceremony
Solo violin, piano, harp or a string duo, trio or quartet. Your guests arrive to live music, and every cue is timed to the moment: the processional, the signing, the recessional.
Most requested: string trio

2. Cocktail Reception
An instrumental trio playing the songs you love, rearranged for the room, while your guests mingle.
Most requested: jazz or acoustic trio

3. Dinner
A DJ and MC run the entrances, toasts and special dances, with a live band setting the tone through dinner.
Most requested: DJ + MC with a 5-piece band

4. Reception
The party. A live band and DJ trade off with no dead air, backed by full sound and lighting.
Most requested: DJ with an 8-piece band and AV/lighting

Every package includes

- A Music Director who plans your timeline with you
- A consultation to build your must-play and do-not-play lists
- Performance videos of your musicians, so you hear your band before you book
