FAQ

How many guests does your event space accommodate?

The Diplomat restaurant can accommodate up to 90 guests for a seated meal, or up to 200 guests for a standing reception.

Please note that we are not wheelchair accessible.

Is the restaurant available for a full buyout?

The Diplomat is available for full restaurant buyouts. When you reserve the venue, a deposit of $1,000 is due upon booking, with the remaining balance due (7) business days prior to the event. Bar charges will be reconciled upon event completion.

Access to the restaurant or area will be provided one (1) hour prior to the confirmed guest arrival time. Additional fees may apply should you require an earlier start time or later end time. Please inquire with our events team.

Is there a charge to book?

There is no room rental fee required to reserve a space, provided that the minimum food and beverage expenditure is met. If the food and beverage minimum is not met (prior to tax and gratuity), the difference will be added as a room rental fee.

The minimum spend requirements for food and beverage vary based on the day of the week and the time of day.

How are the costs determined?

Charges for your event are based on the total food and beverage sales, plus applicable government taxes (13%) and service fees (18%). Taxes will be charged on the subtotal plus gratuity.

Wine, liquor, and beer are selected from the current restaurant list. In accordance with liquor-licensing regulations, guests are not permitted to bring their own wine and alcohol. Please advise us of your preferences and we will be happy to find a comparable item from our list.

Guests are welcome to bring their own wedding cake. Our culinary team is happy to slice and plate, compliments of The Diplomat.

How far in advance do we need to book?

Bookings are made through events@equalparts.ca, and availability is dependent on the time of year. All finalized details, including food and beverage selections, are confirmed seven (7) days prior to the event date for a partial buyout, and 30 days prior to the event date for a full-venue buyout.

What items do I need to supply? What items does The Diplomat provide?

Candles are provided with our compliments. We also print personalized group menus for each of your guests. Please provide logos or special messages that you would like printed on the menus. Clients are responsible for any additional décor.

The Diplomat and its staff comply with all AGCO policies and regulations regarding liquor laws and the responsible service of alcohol to our patrons.

Is there parking available?

There is no cost to park at city meters after 6:00 PM on weekdays, and all day on Saturdays and Sundays.

There are also two large public parking lots available located at 75 and 80 John Street North.

How are payments made?

We accept all major credit cards, debit cards, and cash. We do not accept Equal Parts gift cards. We do not provide invoices to be paid at a later date. The final bill includes all food and beverage ordered, as indicated on the function sheet provided by your event planner. Beverages are charged on a consumption basis and are added to the final bill.

How soon do you need to know our guest count?

The final guaranteed number of guests, not subject to reduction, is required seven (7) days prior to your function. Final charges will be based on the guaranteed number of guests, or the number of attendees, whichever is greater.

Is your menu ever updated?

The event menu package is updated seasonally in an effort to provide you and your guests with the freshest ingredients. Your coordinator will notify you in writing of any menu changes or updates at least seven (7) days prior to your function date.

Is there a cancellation fee?

Food quantities are considered firm at 72 hours prior to the event date. Menu prices listed on this function sheet do not include applicable tax (13%) and gratuity (18%).
